WELCOME TO ST. MIRREN PARK

The great achievement of Oran Kearney and the players from January onwards last season will see this great club retain it's place and competing in the Ladbrokes Scottish Premiership where it belongs.

At St. Mirren Football Club we pride ourselves on providing great service, whatever the occasion we host for you. Whether you are in business and entertaining a table of important clients or enjoying a day out with a group of friends or family, St. Mirren Park is a must-do venue.

We welcome our supporters, together with visiting fans in equal measure. Our policy is to approach the day in good humour, ensuring that, no matter the outcome of the match all our patrons enjoy their day. Everyone receives personal attention. Everyone feels involved in the proceedings and everyone departs feeling that they have been part of the St. Mirren match day experience - that's guaranteed!

St. Mirren Football Club are a family orientated and community based club. We know the importance of looking after our guests many of whom become regular visitors and part of the St. Mirren family.

We also have many different sponsorship and advertising packages that can be tailored to suit your budget. I'm sure there will be something in the following pages that may interest you, so take a look and give me a call.

I look forward to welcoming you to St. Mirren Park.
